

Taste of Maryland

The 27th Annual Taste of Maryland took place on Monday, January 16 at the Loews Annapolis Hotel. Guests sampled delicious food from more than two dozen local restaurants while enjoying cocktails and mingling with members of Maryland's state legislature. The Taste of Maryland is the most celebrated legislative reception of the year, with hundreds of hospitality leaders converging to build relationships with state delegates and educate lawmakers about the impact legislation has on foodservice businesses.