

R House Opens in Baltimore's Remington Neighborhood

The converted 50,000 ft. auto dealership warehouse has been converted into a new style food hall, one that focuses on new chefs, new foods — a platform that is chef driven.

Each of the 10 chefs had a blank canvas spot to create their vision both visually and with their food. A flavor, a food for everyone — free parking in lot and on the street, easily accessible off Baltimore's I-83 Jones Falls Expressway.

Let us not forget the R Bar headed up by Baltimore's top mixologist Aaron Joseph and Amie Ward.

R House is Baltimore's latest hotspot for food, drink, and conversation.
