

CinéBistro: A Restaurant That Shows First Run Movies

Luxe movie-going has come to Baltimore with the opening of CinéBistro, midtown at the Rotunda. Just like making reservations for dinner, you can reserve your seats for your CinéBistro movie choice, arrive 30 minutes prior to the movie, and place your order from the chef-driven menu. Then, sit back, relax, and your meal is served in the theatre before the movie begins. Executive Chef Mark Davis is in command of the 5,000 square foot on-site kitchen. Everything is made from scratch, on the premises.

It is real dining on china and with metal flatware and linen napkins. But you don't have to order food. You can go with the regulars — movie popcorn and your favorite candy snacks. Maybe you want just a beverage? You can get a soda, sure! But you can also order a beer, cocktail, wine, or specialty coffee. Even the movie is optional! One can dine in the restaurant area of CinéBistro and have cocktails or a coffee without even seeing a show!
