

Rosario Gamboa and Canela Bakery – Yummy with a Mexican Flair

If you are one of those folks who craves delicious baked goods — from croissants to cakes, pies, doughnuts, and even churros — take a right-hand turn and head straight to Canela Bakery in Gaithersburg. There, you can feast your eyes on and treat your palate with a huge assortment of treats to round out your yearning for salty or sweet!

All this caloric heaven is thanks to the foresight and creative energy of the bakery's owner, Rosario Gamboa. A native of Mexico who moved to the United States several decades ago, she admits that the idea of owning and baking for a bakeshop was not in her game plan. In fact, she said, she was trained as a nurse and did not even know how to bake when she arrived in Maryland.
