

Delmarva Two-Way Radio, Inc. of Ocean City has announced its association with other Motorola 2-Way Dealers in establishing the new "Mid-Atlantic Digital Radio Network." Based upon the Motorola "MotoTRBO" System, companies that provide delivery and service vehicles in the Ocean City/Delmarva area are able to converse legally with drivers while traveling. The system also includes GPS tracking that can be viewed via Smartphones and PCs. Businesses will gain better control of vehicles, scheduling, and route management — all while saving money! "This system reminds me of the old Nextel system," stated Milt Warren, Delmarva Two-Way president. Check it out at booth #110.

Maryland Plastics is introducing a new line, Sea Glass, where innovative design meets impeccable quality! These beautiful and functional plastic bowls range in size from 16-oz. to 10-quart in size and are available in both blue and green. Stop by and see Dick White in booth 103.

The Bank of Delmarva has opened a new branch in West Ocean City, and, in addition to traditional teller services, this branch boasts a custom-developed room for cash business transactions. It's called CoinPlus. CoinPlus solves a problem that many cash-dependent businesses have: keeping enough cash — in the right denominations — on hand all the time. CoinPlus users can place orders for the cash they need whenever they need it. Customers receive a key fob giving them entrance to the front door of the branch and the CoinPlus room,

But wait ... there's more!

- There's a new twist this year from Ocean 98, the creators of such previous Expo competitions as MIXED!, Crush the Clock, Pie in the Face, and Restaurant Feud. The debut of MINGO will hit the Culinary Showcase Stage on Monday at 1:00 p.m. This entertaining and engaging game will be based on the ever popular bingo. Restaurant and hotel themed music will highlight the event, as participants compete for gift cards and overnight stays.
- Latte art, created by a local barista, can be viewed in Eastern Shore Coffee & Water's booth 228-229 on the lower level in Exhibit Hall A/B. Eastern Shore's barista will be showcasing his talents on Sunday and Monday.

where there are 28 CoinPlus lockers/vaults. The customer uses a fingerprint on the machine inside the secure room, and only one person can occupy at a time to access his or her locker/vault. Then, the fingerprint is pre-programmed and releases a key to that specific locker. Stop by booth 2101 to learn more.

VIVOTEK has a new stereo counting camera that tracks people movement in real time, with an accuracy of up to 98 percent. This metric will provide business owners the tool to make operational decisions and increase their ROI. Check it out at the VIVOTEK & Maloney Telecom booth 2001-2002.

And, While You're in OC ...

The public is invited to the OC Center for the Arts First Friday Reception from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. on Friday, March 2. At this free reception, attendees can meet the artists, enjoy hors d'oeuvres, and browse the hand-made pottery, jewelry, and two floors of artwork. More information is available at www.artleagueofoceancity.org. The Art League of Ocean City is a non-profit organization dedicated to bringing the visual arts to the community through education, exhibits, scholarship, programs, and community art projects.

The Ocean City Lifesaving Museum is located at the south end of the boardwalk and is open from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. Travel back to Ocean City's past to join the heroic Surfmens of the US Life-Saving Service on a rescue mission. Sands from around the world are on display, and the Aquarium Room features species from our waters. The Boardwalk of Yesterday highlights boardwalk scenes and is a true gem, complete with good 'ol Laughin' Sal!
